

TAMAR – Study Guide One (Student’s Guide)
A Study of Triumph.
Sylvia De Jong

There are eight Hebrew words for “triumph” – all used with reference to God in praise and prayer and also in discussion concerning God (Strong’s Concordance). God triumphs in our lives. The triumph in the study of Tamar is the triumph God brought about by using the life of Tamar; enabling her to become an ancestress of King David and of Jesus Christ in spite of her failure to trust God and her deceptive scheme. God be praised that there is hope! God will overcome our failures if we seek Him and His intervention in our lives.

Please read Tamar - A Study of Triumph in the Widows of the Old Testament book before answering the questions.

Suggestion: A notebook would be handy to organize and keep your Study Guide notes available for easy access from week to week. The study guide cover page can be slipped into the front notebook cover if designed to hold a sheet of paper.

In this study, we learn about God and the beginnings of life. Paul describes God’s sovereignty or rule over all in Acts 17:24-28.

1. What are five actions of God described here?

- a) _____
- b) _____
- c) _____

32. Joseph's geneology of Jesus is in Matthew 1:1-16. Copy vv. 3 and 16.

(v.3) _____

(v.16) _____

Note, Perez is also in the genealogy of Mary and Jesus in Luke. See Luke 3:33.

33. Discussion question – Discuss the way Tamar chose to take care of her situation giving her sons but no husband. Could God have given Tamar a husband and children another way and still allowed her to be an ancestress in the lineage of the Messiah?

Fill in the blanks.

34. Christ left heaven's glory to be born into an imperfect human family.

Philippians 2:5-11 tells us Christ humbled himself and became obedient to death on a cross. God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that _____ every _____ shall bow in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every _____ confess that _____ is _____ to the glory of God the Father.

Personal Application

Give thought to these questions and answer them from your heart.

35. What must it have been like for Tamar to live with a wicked husband – so wicked that God slew him? _____

Discuss ways you can deal with painful family situations.

36. In what way can you identify with Tamar's widowhood or her longing for a child?

Fill in the blanks (see page 25 of Widows of the Old Testament book)

37. In God's amazing grace and forgiveness He _____ Tamar to be an ancestress of His son Jesus Christ. God was able to bring triumph out of the tragedy of deceit.

Discuss – Tamar felt justified in deceiving Judah to get what she wanted.

a) Does it honor God to deceive people to get what you want?

b) Earlier we discussed ways Tamar might have addressed her plight of betrayal and rejection without yielding to deception. How should we respond, as followers of Christ, if someone treats us unjustly?

38. Are you trusting God and waiting on Him to grant the desire of your heart? _____.

39. God's hand is on your life. He wants you to believe and trust Him in all matters of your life. He wants you to be aware of your wrongdoings and _____ so His _____ and _____ can rule in your life (pg. 25). Repentance means a change of mind and heart which results in a changed life. Grace is undeserved favor. Mercy is compassion or withholding punishment.

Exercise: Consider how God wants you to trust Him more. Ask God to show you something for which He wants you to trust Him. Record it here and watch to see how He helps you grow in trust in the weeks ahead. Note that God wants to triumph in your life! I am going to trust God for _____
